Eligibility

Successful applicants selected through the admissions for international applicants for Fall 2022

1. The International Student Affairs Team offers assistance to international students during their first semester in order to apply for priority placement into the dormitory, as well as makes all efforts to secure and assign dormitory rooms for those who wish to live on-campus. However, some priority placement applications may be declined depending on the availability of rooms.
2. Guaranteed occupancy duration for priority entrants is maximum 1 year. When applying for priority placement, applicants must indicate their housing preference for the 2022-Fall / 2022-Winter / 2023-Spring / 2023-Summer terms on the application.
3. Residence for 2022-Fall and 2023-Spring is required; residence for 2022-Winter and 2023-Summer is optional.
4. From 2023-Fall, students must apply for housing on EUREKA portal system by themselves during the regular dormitory application period and get selected through a lottery to receive a housing assignment.
5. Notes
 - 1) Please be aware that the residence option cannot be changed after your application, so choose carefully.
 - 2) If an applicant has chose all 2022-Fall, 2022-Winter, 2023-Spring and 2023-Summer for her residence, but decides to move out during her residence period in 2022-Fall, her approval for the remaining period(Winter / Spring / Summer) will automatically be rescinded. She may apply again as a non-resident for the Summer / Fall / Winter, but note that her residency will be resolved upon the lottery results
 - 3) If an applicant cancels her 2022-Winter residence application, she cannot apply for the 1st round in 2023-Fall(she can apply from the 2nd round instead)
 - 4) Move-in information(due dates, fees and others) is subject to change in response to the impact of COVID-19, and thus all applicants are required to check the housing website (<http://my.ewha.ac.kr/dorm>) frequently for the most up-to-date announcements

Application Procedures and Result Notification

Applicants should indicate on the Statement of Intent to Register whether they wish to apply for priority placement → Rooms will be assigned on a first-come-first-served basis on submission of the Statement of Intent to Register(announced via personal e-mail around early August 2022) → entrance

- * All rooms are assigned by a computerized lottery system.
 - Undergraduate & Graduate : single / double room in I-House

Notes

1. Depending on the room type, some residents may use a shared bathroom and shower room on each floor
 - * Floor plan & Pictures : Website(<http://my.ewha.ac.kr/dorm>) → Facilities → Rooms
2. There is no curfew at I-House. However, if a resident plans to stay out for more than 24 hours, she should apply for permission for staying out.
3. The dormitories are a shared living space where diversity issues such as noise and communication problems exist. Please be mindful of these differences and treat everyone with respect.
4. Housing staff(including male) may access rooms or common areas for facility inspection and maintenance.
5. Note that there can be a male resident at I-House as the residents consist of international students of Ewha, exchange and visiting students, language center students, and guests.
